1. On 20 July the Central and South China Bureau instructed the Canton Military Control Commission to organize a commission in Kwangtung, to be called Pan Mei Yung Ho Wei Yuan Hui (反美援和委員會), an anti-American commission to uphold the peace.* LI Fan-fu (李範九) was appointed Director of the Commission.
2. The task of the Commission was described as being to arouse the people to realize the acts of aggression of the American imperialists in Korea and in Taiwan, and to encourage the people to support the magnificent task of liberating Taiwan.
3. Similar commissions are being organized elsewhere in China.
4. The Central and South China Bureau recently issued an order for the conscription of young able-bodied men by drawing lots. The South China Sub-Bureau has given instructions to the East River and West River sectors to carry out this. However, hsien cities such as Chungshan, Hsienhui (Kongmoon), Taishan, Panyu and Shunde have not yet received this order.
5. On the nights of 12 and 13 August the South China Sub-Bureau called a meeting of senior party members and trades union members. Chu Kuang* acted as chairman and FANG Fang, JAO Chang-feng (郭彰風), T'AN Cheng-lin (譚政林), LIU Hsiao-p'ing (劉小平), T'UNG Sheng and Hsiao Hsiang-jung (蕭何榮) attended.

 Comment. This report indicates that CHU Kuang now holds a position of some importance in the South China Sub-Bureau. Hitherto he has usually been known as assistant secretary of the Canton Party organization, a member of the Canton Military Control Commission and deputy Mayor of Canton, but not as a member of the South China Sub-Bureau.
